

NPQ in Leading Teacher Development (NPQLTD)

Who is it for?

Teachers who have, or are aspiring to have, responsibilities for leading the development of other teachers in their school. They may have responsibilities for the development of all teachers across a school or specifically trainees or teachers who are early in their career.

What will I learn?

You'll develop the knowledge, skills and expertise to lead the development of teachers, including sequencing and structuring professional development and effective coaching and mentoring.

Modules include:

- Teaching
- Designing professional development
- Delivering professional development
- Implementation

Programme breakdown

Designed with busy teachers in mind, the NPQLTD is delivered using a blend of online seminars, flexible online learning and conferences.

Over 12 months, you'll take part in the following learning activities:

Key	Asynchronous	Synchronous
-----	--------------	-------------

How will I benefit?

- ✓ Develop as a specialist in areas related to your role, including designing and delivering continual professional development (CPD) to others across the school.
- ✓ Work with serving school leaders and subject matter experts to turn new learning into changes in your own and others' practice.
- ✓ Access a blended learning programme that's full of practical and tangible examples, flexible and tailored to your needs and areas of development and focus.

£840

Scholarship funding to support participants to access the reformed suite of NPQs is planned and details will be confirmed in due course.
